WELCOME TO OUR LADY OF GRACE

Pastor's
 Corner

Dear Sisters and Brothers,
 Once again we have the great joy and privilege of celebrating Easter, the victory of Jesus over sin and death. Jesus, the Emmanuel continues, to be born in us, to suffer in us and be resurrected in us. Week after week we gather in this Church and celebrate the Living and Risen presence of our God. When we celebrate baptisms I see Jesus born again. When I see the joy and pride of parents with their little ones, I see Mary and Joseph who said yes to God. When I see so many of you who are suffering physical and other pains, I see Jesus carrying the cross. And whenever we gather in His name the Risen Lord is present in our midst.

Let us praise our God who makes it possible for us to celebrate His love and His presence among us, by calling so many of us to minister to Him in so many ways. The Altar servers, the choir, the Eucharistic ministers, the lectors, the ushers, the Catechists, the teachers and all of you who are involved in all the other ministries and committees that make our parish a place where the Risen Lord truly lives and is worshipped. May our journey through the Holy week and the Passionate love of our Lord for each one of us, strengthen us to choose the Lord's way instead of the World's way. Where the world beckons us to anger and revenge even against our own father, mother, brother, sister, wife or husband, may the forgiving love of Jesus lead us to opt for love and forgiveness. When we choose to forgive we choose the cross and death for ourselves instead of crucifying others and that is the only way to resurrection. Through all our life experiences, joy or sadness, successes or failure, love or hatred, disappointment or fulfilled expectation, let us always be faithful and loving and then, no matter what God will bring us to resurrection and new life. In the end, it will not be our merits but His love that will bring us to Resurrection. As He taught us, let us choose love and forgiveness and then death will give way to resurrection. Through these Celebrations of our God, especially through the celebration of the Eucharist, may we be united to the Risen Lord.

Happy Easter,
